

Angus Withington KC

"Angus is a really effective advocate; he has a good eye for detail and clients love him."

- Chambers UK 2024

Call 1995
Silk 2021

Tel: +44 (0)20 7583 9020
Email awithington@hendersonchambers.co.uk

Angus Withington KC is an experienced common law and commercial barrister, who has been recognized in the legal directories for a number of years as a leading practitioner in the fields of health and safety and personal injury.

His practice also encompasses the full range of work undertaken in Chambers, notably product liability and group actions, insurance and employment & professional discipline. He has been described in the Legal 500 as "a comprehensive and persuasive advocate, who has a fantastic manner with clients", "an excellent negotiator", the provider of "quick, concise advice" who "achieves great results" and being "quick to establish a good rapport with clients".

He is also a Recorder of the Crown Court and County Court and is the Chairman of the Appeal Committee of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

For more information about the way barristers at Henderson Chambers work, including our terms of engagement, fee transparency statement and our complaints process, please click here. Barristers are regulated by the Bar Standards Board.

Please click here for a copy of Angus Withington's privacy policy.

Personal Injury

Angus has a strong personal injury practice, which covers the full range of accidents. He is particularly noted for his work relating to catastrophic work place accidents and in cases where there are difficult issues of medical causation and allegations of fraud.

He is regularly instructed by Defendants in large multi-million pound claims and arising from high profile accidents. His recent instructions include a £20 million personal claim, a £10million fatal accident claim and a £8 million personal injury claim. He has been recognised as a leading practitioner in personal injury law by the Legal 500 for many years.

Representative Cases

- Harrison v Big Bang Productions [2021] EWHC 2396 (QB)
Successful defence of a claim by a participant in a Bear Grylls survival race.
- Allen v Two Four Broadcast Limited and others [2021]
Acting for the Austrian company responsible for constructing the ski jump in the claim pursued by Beth Tweddle as a result of injuries sustained whilst filming the TV show, “The Jump”.
- Crooks v Hendricks Lovell Limited [2016] EWCA Civ 8
Decision by the Court of Appeal that Part 36 offers expressed net of CRU are to be assessed after any challenges to the certificate had been undertaken.
- MacLeod v Commissioner of the Metropolis [2015] EWCA Civ 688
Acting for the successful Claimant, who was catastrophically injured by a police car responding to an emergency call.
- Smithurst v Sealant Construction Services Limited [2012] Med LR 258
The Court of Appeal upheld a decision that a Claimant’s damages should be limited to a two year acceleration period.
- Grant Couzens v T McGee & Co Ltd (now t/a McGee Group Ltd) (2009) PIQR P14
The Court of Appeal determined that a makeshift tool did not amount to “work equipment” under the Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998 where an employer had not given either express or implied permission for its use.

Health & Safety

Angus has considerable Health & Safety experience appearing in all courts up to and including the Court of Appeal, notably in the defence of prosecutions instituted by the HSE. He has also acted in a number of prosecutions brought by the London Fire and Emergency Planning Authority and for offences under the Environmental Protection Act.

He is listed as a Leading Silk in Health and Safety law by Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500.

Angus is also very experienced in acting for interested persons at Inquests. His recent instructions have included representing:

- A company whose employee was killed as a result of movement of heavy plant in a restricted site area
- a medical device manufacturer following the death of a patient after complications during surgery
- a care home following an accidental drugs overdose by a resident
- a lift installation company following the death of an employee
- a London school at a high profile Inquest concerning the death of a pupil
- a company following the death of an employee in a chain-saw accident at work

Representative Cases

- HSE v FP McCann (2021)
Prosecution arising from a historic enquiry as to the use of vibrating work equipment at a number of manufacturing sites.
- HSE v Haynes Park Science of the Soul (2018)
HSE prosecution arising out of a fatal accident suffered by a volunteer at a spiritual charity. (March 2018)
Link to press coverage here
- British Cycling Inquest (2018)
Acting for interested party week long Inquest involving British Cycling arising out of a fatality at a cycle circuit race accident. The Inquest concluded with a conclusion of accidental death.
Link to press coverage here
- HSE v Castle Homes Limited (2017)
Defending a residential care home in proceedings following the drowning of a child in its care.
- HSE v Foodles Production (UK) Limited (2016)
Representing Defendant with Charles Gibson QC in a prosecution arising from the accident to Harrison Ford on the set of Star Wars: The Force Awakens.
- HSE v Boswells Academy Trust (2016)
Representing a school in a prosecution arising from historic failures to manage the risk presented by asbestos.
- Canterbury City Council v Rec Tech Leisure Limited (2015)
Representing Defendant in a successful appeal on sentence before the Court of Appeal following a serious injury to a child using inflatable play equipment.

Product Liability

Angus is regularly instructed in relation to product liability claims, both individually and as part of larger teams of Counsel. He has developed a particular expertise in PPE and medical devices used as part of the response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

His principal areas of work include:

- Medical Devices (eg. Metal on Metal Hip Litigation, Endovascular Devices, Cardioverter-Defibrillators)
- Vehicles (eg. electrical fires, tyres, tow bars, airbags)
- Workplace and Commercial equipment (eg. lifts, hydraulic crushers, bead seaters)
- Fairground rides
- Construction materials (eg. insulation, cement, adhesives)
- Clothing

Angus has also advised on a number of national and international product recalls.

Commercial & Insurance

Angus undertakes general commercial and contractual litigation, particularly in relation to insurance, guarantees and the sale of goods. He has notable experience in insurance coverage disputes.

Representative Cases

- Maison Blanc Ltd v Active Commercial Interiors Limited & Others [2013] BLR 244
Successful breach of contract claim providing a full indemnity for damages payable to Claimants injured by the collapse of a shop frontage.
- Omega Proteins Ltd v Aspen Insurance UK Ltd [2011] Lloyd's Rep IR 183
Whether a judgment for breach of contract against an Insured prevented a Third Party pursuing a subsequent claim based upon negligence against the Insurer under the 1930 Act.
- Smith's Vitamins & Herbs Ltd v Ceprodi Compagnie European De Produits Dietetiques SA - [2010] All ER (D) 196 (Mar)
Contractual claim arising from supply of food supplements in France.

Professional Discipline

Angus is highly experienced in the field of professional discipline and regulatory law. He is Chairman of the Appeal Committee of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

He also has particular experience in relation to proceedings before the Institute of Structural Engineers, the Architects Registration Board, the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants, the General Medical Council and the General Osteopathic Council.

Employment

Angus undertakes a full range of employment work and he has extensive experience in representing clients before the EAT, Tribunals and the civil courts in relation to such claims. He has particular experience in unfair dismissal, discrimination, restrictive covenants and injunctive relief. He is regularly consulted at an early stage by public authorities and employers who seek tactical advice as to how to resolve difficult workplace issues.

Representative Cases

- Ibekwe v Sussex Partnership NHS Foundation Trust (2014) EAT
Successful resistance of an appeal arising from protected disclosures made at work.
- Vivian v Bournemouth Borough Council (2011) EAT
Whether protected disclosures could be said to have resulted in the unfair dismissal of an employee.

- Whitelock & Storr v Khan (2010) EAT
Successful appeal of a Tribunal's finding that a solicitor had been dismissed for making a protected disclosure.
- G v T Bank (2010)
Successful claim of age discrimination on behalf of a trader employed by an international bank.

What the directories say

"Angus is excellent with clients and swiftly builds a rapport to help reassure them at what is often a difficult time. He has been a real asset to the team."
Legal 500 2024

"Angus is very responsive and sensible, he is very good at putting clients at their ease."
Legal 500 2024

"He is responsive, good on his feet and always goes an extra mile."
Chambers UK 2024

"His level of service is always exceptional."
Chambers UK 2024

'Angus does not have any weaknesses. He is a brilliant barrister in every respect.'
Legal 500 2023

'Angus is approachable, responsive, incredibly hardworking and flexible.'
Legal 500 2023

"He excels in every aspect of the job."
Chambers UK 2023

"Angus is excellent. He has great attention to detail, establishes an excellent rapport with clients in what are often very difficult circumstances and he is also one of my favourite barristers to work with"
Legal 500 2022

"He is an excellent advocate as well as brilliant on paper"

Legal 500 2022

"Able to take on board large amounts of information quickly and provides excellent advice."
Chambers UK 2022

"He is approachable and very good with clients."
Chambers UK 2022

"Angus is brilliant at adapting his style to suit the particular client in each case. From individuals to corporate clients, he is always able to put the client at ease and help us to achieve the best results for them. He is excellent in Court and, as an added bonus, he is an absolute joy to work with."
Legal 500 2021

"Incredibly experienced and a huge asset in every claim."
Legal 500 2021

"A very experienced junior."
Chambers UK 2021

"A good advocate who is also excellent with clients - he has the human personal touch with nervous individuals. He's also very charming, and judges and jurors really like him."
Chambers UK 2021

"Very knowledgeable and demonstrates great client empathy."
Legal 500 2020

"He can always be relied upon to do a first-class job. He is very good with nervous clients and witnesses, puts them at ease and takes the stress out of the job they need to do. He is always well prepared, on top of his briefs and an absolute pleasure to work with."
Chambers UK 2020

"A comprehensive and persuasive advocate, who has a fantastic manner with clients."
Legal 500 2016

Appointments

- King's Counsel (QC 2021)

- Recorder (Crown and County Courts)

Publications

- Tolley's Health and Safety at Work

Memberships

- Health & Safety Lawyers' Association
- Personal Injuries Bar Association

Education

- Inns of Court School of Law (Outstanding) (1995)
- Diploma in Law, City University (1994)
- Prince of Wales Scholarship, Gray's Inn (1994)
- Karmel Award, Gray's Inn (1993)
- BA Hons, University of Durham (1993)

Awards & Recognitions

